

FRIDAY EVE, AUGUST 15, 1884.

To the Democracy of Mason County.
The convention to select delegates to represent Mason County in the Congressional Convention, at Caltensburg, Ky., will meet at the court house, in Mayville, at two o'clock p. m., Saturday afternoon, August 16, 1884.

JOHN W. ALEXANDER,
Secretary Democratic Executive Committee of Mason County.

Riddell's Defeat.

It now appears from recent returns sent from Frankfort which may be taken as reliable that Judge Riddell is defeated by a small majority. This result was accomplished by the treachery of Thomas F. Hargis, Henry L. Stone and their little bootlickers in every county of the district. These men have been the means of overcoming a Democratic majority of more than seven thousand. Many of them were open in their opposition to Riddell, and others while professing to favor his election were secretly against him and doubtless worked to defeat him. They should be remembered hereafter, and when any one of them, who has been in any way connected with the treacherous clique who have brought defeat on the Democratic party, pops up for office, as is certain to be the case, for the creed of the gang is, that every confederate shall receive a reward in some form or other, his political head should be promptly cracked by the Democratic cudgel. The true Democrats of Mason have no need to reproach themselves with it. They gave to Judge Riddell the handsome majority of five hundred and eight, which is the third best given in the forty-one counties that compose the district. The county Democracy did all that could be expected of them, and any man who speaks disparagingly of their work is an enemy of the party and needs watching.

The Yeoman says: The official returns received from the First Appellate district, given elsewhere, are sufficient to assure the election of Colonel Holt, as the successor of Judge Hargis, to whose active efforts he may be said to be indebted in part for the result. That success sanctifies rebellion has sometimes been asserted in war, but we do not recognize the rule in politics, and we shall not yield our opinions heretofore expressed of those calling themselves Democrats, who have united with the Republicans to compass the defeat of a Democratic nominee. As against this handful of men who have proved recreant to duty, we prefer to point with honor and pride to the more than thirty thousand true Democrats who have stood manfully to their posts and have been faithful to their duty. For them the future will bring its reward.

Official returns from the First Appellate district have been received at the office of Secretary of State from thirty-six out of the forty-one counties in the district. The official vote in the counties heard from is as follows:

Holt's majority.....31,920
Riddell's majority.....3,868
Holt's majority.....31,920
The counties to be heard from are Lawrence, Owsley, Perry, Letcher and Mingo.

The wheat market continues weak at a further decline of about five cents. The best Lancaster is now 70 and Falls 65 to 70 cents, the latter price for strictly choice. Another heavy tumble in the price of flour would seem in order now. Previous to 1881 the retail price of best family flour in this market was $3.25 to $3.50 per barrel, it seems more than probable that prices even lower than these will be reached ere long.

Iron seems to be doomed, except as it enters into the manufacture of steel. Steel rails and steel nails have taken the place of iron, and iron nails are everywhere being transformed into steel nails. Very large works at Wheeling, charged all their iron workers and will at once change to steel. The discharge of several hundred men was the consequence.

General JOSEPH WHEELER, the noted Confederate Cavalryman, has been nominated for Congress in the Decatur, Ala. district, by a Democratic Convention. He has already served two terms in this body.

The annual convention of the Kentucky State Sunday School Union met in Richmond, Ky., on the 19th, 20th and 21st of this month. All Sunday school workers are entitled to go as delegates.

The Republicans of the Tenth district talk of running Henry L. Stone for Congress, in recognition of his treachery to the Democratic party.

Mr. J. T. Dye, a prominent Republican lawyer of Indianapolis, and friend of this city, will take the stump for Cleveland and Hendricks.

THE MULLIGAN LETTERS.

How Blaine Wrote Himself Down a Legislative Black-Mailer.

There were fifteen letters in the package addressed to Mr. Mulligan by Mr. Blaine on the plea of Blaine's honor, that he would return them to Mulligan, which pledge Mr. Blaine deliberately broke.

There are four of these letters that relate to the famous Little Rock and Fort Smith railroad transaction in which Mr. Blaine's moral integrity is involved. Here they are:

ACOSTA, June 29, 1880.
"My Dear Mr. Fisher: I thank you for the article from Mr. Lewis. It is good in itself and will do good. He writes like a man of large intelligence and comprehension."

"Your offer to admit me to a participation in the new railroad enterprise is in every respect as generous as I could expect or desire. I thank you very sincerely for it, and in this connection I wish to make a suggestion of a somewhat selfish character."

"You spoke of Mr. Caldwell disposing of a share of his interest to me. If he really designs to do so, I wish he would make the proposition definite, so that I could know what to depend on. Perhaps, if he waits till the full development of the enterprise, he might grow reluctant to part with his share, and I do not by the mean and dishonest of him."

"I do not feel that I shall prove a dead-head in the enterprise if I once embark in it. I see various channels in which I know I can be useful. Very hastily and sincerely your friend, 'J. G. BLAINE.'"
"Mr. FISHER, India street, Boston."

ACOSTA, July 2, 1880.
"My Dear Mr. Fisher: You ask me if I am satisfied with the offer you made of a share in your new railroad enterprise."

"Of course, I am more than satisfied with the terms of the offer. I think it is most liberal and propitious."

"If I hesitated at all, it is from considerations in my way connected with the character of the offer. Your liberal mode of dealing with me in all our business transactions of the past eight years has not passed without my full appreciation. What I want you to do is to be intended to bring Caldwell to a definite proposition, that was all."

"I go to Boston by the same train that carries the letter, and will call at your office to-morrow at 12 m. If you don't happen to be in, no matter. Don't send yourself any trouble about it. Yours, 'J. G. B.'"
"W. FISHER, Jr., Boston."

ACOSTA, October 4, 1880.
"My Dear Mr. Fisher: Find enclosed parties named in my letter of yesterday. The remaining contracts will be completed as rapidly as possible as circumstances will permit."

"I enclose you part of the Congressional Globe of April 9, containing the report to which I referred at some length in my previous letter of to-day. You will find it of interest to read it over. You see what a narrow escape your bill made on that last night of the session. Of course, it was my plain duty to make the ruling when the point was raised. If the Arkansas bill had not been introduced, I am sure it would have been lost, or at least postponed for a year or two. The point would interest both you and Caldwell, though occurring before either of you engaged in the enterprise."

"I beg you to understand that I thoroughly appreciate the courtesy with which you have treated me in this railroad matter, but your conduct toward me in business matters has only been marked by unbounded liberality in past years, and, of course, I have naturally come to expect the same of you now. You urge me to make as much as I fairly can out of the arrangement into which we have entered. It is natural that I should do so, but I do not, and I am bothered by only one thing, and that is the indefinite arrangement with Mr. Caldwell. I am anxious to acquire the interest in the bill, but I do not, and I get a definite understanding with him as I have with you. I shall be in Boston in a few days and shall have an opportunity to talk matters over fully with you. I am disposed to think water I do with Mr. Caldwell must be really done through you. Kind regards to Mr. Fisher. Sincerely, 'J. G. BLAINE.'"
"W. FISHER, Jr., Boston."

"[Personal]."
"My Dear Sir: I spoke to you a short time ago about a point of interest to your railroad company that occurred at the last session of Congress."

"It was on the last night of the session, when the bill renewing the land grant to the State of Arkansas for the Little Rock and Fort Smith railroad, introduced by Chairman of the Public Lands Committee, and by right entitled to the floor, attempted to put on the bill an amendment of the Fremont scheme—a scheme perfectly well known to Mr. Caldwell. The house was thin, and the lobby in the Fremont interest had the thing in the Arkansas bill had gone back to the Senate with Julian's amendment, the whole thing would have gone on the table and slept the sleep of death."

"In this dilemma Rooks came to me to know what on earth he could do under the rules, for he said it was vital to his constituents that the bill should pass. I told him that Julian's amendment was entirely out of order, because not germane, but he had not sufficient confidence in his knowledge of the rules to make the point, but he said Gen. Logan was opposed to the Fremont scheme, and would probably make the point. I sent my page to Gen. Logan with the suggestion, and he at once made the point. I told him otherwise than that, and so the bill was freed from the mischievous amendment moved by Julian and at once passed without objection. "At that time I had never seen Mr. Caldwell, but you can tell him that without knowing it, I did him a great favor. Sincerely yours, 'J. G. BLAINE.'"

"W. FISHER, Jr., Esq., 24 India street, Boston."

On the subject of these letters the New York Sun, in its issue of the 10th inst., remarks as follows: "It is interesting to remark that it was Blaine and Logan—not Blaine alone—who rendered to the proprietors of the Little Rock and Fort Smith railroad the important service so exultingly described by the speaker. Blaine was in the chair and made the change. He sent his page to Logan, who promptly made the point of order suggested by the speaker. Blaine thereupon made the ruling, and the thing was done. We have not heard, however, that Blaine ever applied to Fisher and Caldwell for an interest in the road for Logan, on the ground of his services."

A CALENDAR OF CRIME

A Brutal Prize Fight Which Has a Fatal Ending.

Texas Comes to the Front with Her Usual Number of Shooting, Af-Fraye-Lynchings and Murders Reported from Various Parts.

OLEAN, N. Y., Aug. 15.—James McGregor recently became involved in a difficulty with Richard O'Neill, and on Saturday they met in the village of Washington. Accompanied by five others they went to a barn to settle their differences by a prize fight. After fighting two rounds McGregor said he was satisfied and offered his hand to O'Neill. The latter took it, and holding it tight, suddenly tripped McGregor up. McGregor fell heavily, striking on his face.

O'Neill seized him by the hair, and, raising his head up quickly several times, knocked his face with all his strength against the floor until McGregor became unconscious. Then, without any interference on the part of the bystanders, O'Neill pounded McGregor and kicked him for at least a minute. He then ran to a pump near by and returned with a bucket of water, and sponged the blood from McGregor's face, and finally restored him to consciousness.

No sooner did his opponent show signs that he had regained consciousness than O'Neill again began to kick and pound him, and again rendered the prostrate man unconscious. O'Neill and the others then went away, leaving McGregor on the barn floor. No attention was paid to him until Sunday morning, when, being found still senseless, a physician was called. McGregor never recovered consciousness, and died on Monday. At last accounts no arrests had been made.

Dick Liddell and Bob Ford Go Out on a Frolic.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 15.—Bob Ford and Dick Liddell are running a saloon here frequented by cowboys and fighters. After midnight Sunday both went with a party of cowboys in the employ of Lynch to White House, a notorious place of prostitution, drunk champagne, became intoxicated and quarreled with a rival gang that came in. Guns were brandished in the gayest like lightning bugs. The women screamed and prayed.

During the rumble inside three railroad boys tried to escape by climbing over the back fence, when a number of the crowd rushed out after them and literally rained bullets around their fast receding footsteps. The whole town was up in arms to enforce order, but just then three or four Mexican Deputy Sheriffs, policemen and Mexican citizens, sworn in for the occasion, were seen coming over the hill. They were armed with Winchester and 45s, and meant business. Liddell and Ford were soon in jail, and paid a heavy fine next day.

The Marchals of Caldwell are Called On by Cattle Men.

CALDWELL, Kan., Aug. 15.—A fatal shooting affray occurred at Hunsawell, in which City Marshal Hamilton Ryner, of that place, was slightly and his deputy, Scotland, fatally wounded. The shooting was the result of an old feud which had its origin last summer by Marshal Ryner shooting at some cowboys.

Hunsawell had been overrun by this class of men for some time. Ryner was sent for, and came from Texas to take the Marshal ship, and he was soon "boss" of the village, but some shooting was necessary, and he incurred the hatred of the cowboys.

Late in the night some of them began shooting while in the village limits. Ryner pursued and fired at them, ineffectively however. About midnight O. D. Hamwell and C. Clark, the former a cattle owner, and the latter a foreman for Minlan, Montgomery & Co., in the falling darkness, came into the town and began hunting for Ryner. They soon found him and Scotland in a saloon, and after a few words were exchanged, Ryner was shot in the fleshy part of the leg and will recover.

Scotland was also a United States Deputy Marshal. The cattle men are both well known here, and have heretofore been excellent reputations.

A Cold Blooded Murder.

SACAMORE, Ill., Aug. 15.—Louis Taylor, a farmer living west of here, shot and killed Little Mitchell, aged seventeen. No cause is assigned. Neighbors, after two hours search, found him crouching in the river. The girl, when found, was still alive with her clothing on fire, but expired a few moments later. Threats of lynching are freely indulged in.

McCULLOUGH LYNCHED.

A Murderer is Summarily Dealt Out Justice by Minn.

COTILLA, Tex., Aug. 15.—One hundred men surrounded the jail and invited the Sheriff to surrender Green McCullough, held on a charge of murder. After going through this little formality, the vigilantes proceeded to take the man, and escorting him to a neighboring tree, left him dangling, head down, at the end of a rope.

The occasion of the visting of summary justice upon McCullough was the murder yesterday evening of Chas. Bragg, with whom McCullough had had a previous altercation, which at the time was thought to be finally settled. McCullough, however, only went away to arm himself. Subsequently returning he sought out his victim in a gambling room, and shot him through and through with a rifle, killing him instantaneously.

Result of a Cattle Conference.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 15.—A conference of stock men has been held in this city. The gathering consisted of gentlemen representing the following railroads: Atchafalpa, Topkapi & Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Central Branch of the Union Pacific and the Ft. Scott & Gulf. The State Sanitary Commissioners, the State Veterinarian and the Governor were also present. The result of the meeting was the issuing of a proclamation by the Governor creating a quarantine until November 1, against all cattle from TEXAS, ARIZONA, MISSISSIPPI, ALABAMA, GEORGIA and FLORIDA.

Cholera.

MARSHALLS, Aug. 15.—Eight deaths from cholera.

GENERAL.

Forty deaths in forty-eight hours at Owensboro, a village of the Lower Alps; twenty deaths at Marseilles in twenty-four hours; at Toulon, two deaths and a threatened epidemic of small-pox and typhoid fever. Other deaths in the hands of Southern France. Italian town reports but few fatal cases.
